In-Person / Online

Studying Spanish in Salamanca allows foreign students to learn a language in an ideal setting: the cradle of an increasingly universal language. Enjoying the unforgettable experiences this beautiful city offers will help you assimilate what you learn in your classes.

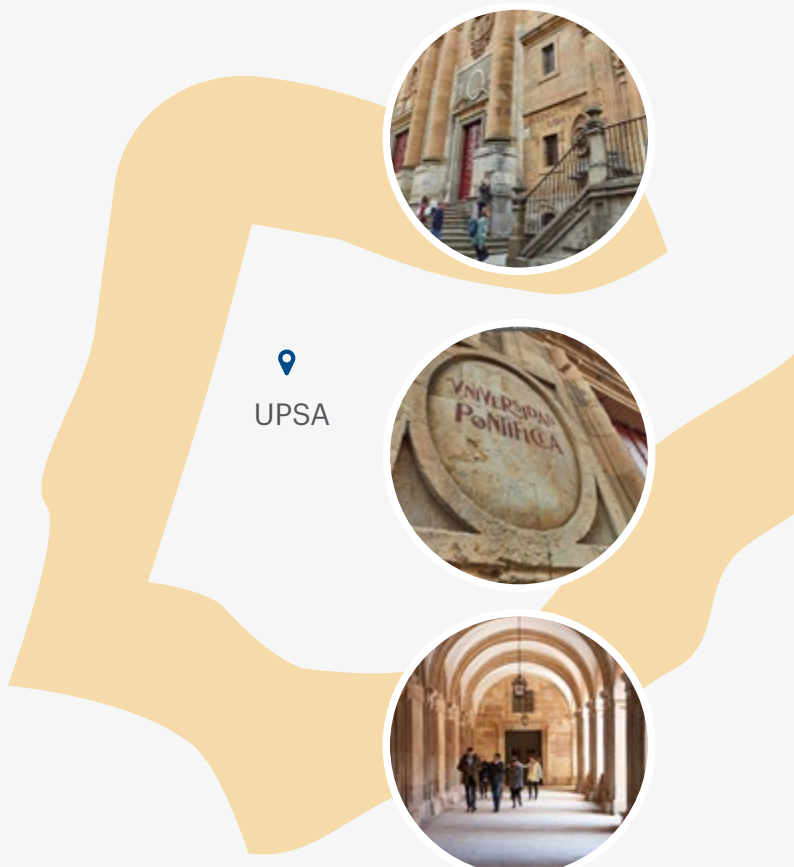

The Pontifical University of Salamanca also offers the possibility of online classes, allowing you to experience the same quality of teaching from wherever you are.

Who we are

The intensive Spanish Language and Culture courses that UPSA offers combine a complete and rigorous academic program with a wide range of cultural activities.

The goal of our Spanish courses is to provide students with linguistic, as well as cultural immersion. For this reason, we offer daily classes with certified experienced teachers, paired with a variety of activities. Excursions, tours, parties and exchanges will make international students feel fully integrated in the university atmosphere.
